

Fact: Individuals with eating disorders come in all shapes and sizes.

Myth: You can tell if someone has an eating disorder simply by looking at them

Facts: Although many people are exposed to altered pictures, very few are affected.

Myth: Eating Disorders are caused by Photoshopped images in the media

Facts: 1 out of every 10 affected by eating disorders is male

Myths: Men don't get eating disorders

Facts: People in all socioeconomic levels have eating disorders

Myth: Only people of high socioeconomic status levels have eating disorders

"Everyday I choose to fight anorexia, she gets weaker and I gain new strength" -Katherine Henning

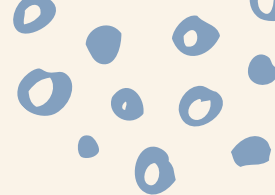

"There is no magic cure, no making it all go away forever. There are only small steps upward; an easier day, an unexpected laugh, a mirror that doesn't matter anymore." - Lia Overbrook, Wintergirls

by: Siarra Binion 7B

Ditch the thin love your skin

Anorexia Nervosa

Our Classes Include:

Get to Know Teacher Michelle

The creative field is like an endless meadow of possibilities. Use this section of the brochure to show off your creative passions and hold the attention of your audience, as well as prospective clients, with a short description of what you, your event, or organization is about.

Sketching for Kids

Use this section to show off your services and projects. Take the time to talk at length about each one in a clear and succinct manner, that can be understood quickly by future clients.

Basic Collage Making

Use this section to show off your services and projects. Take the time to talk at length about each one in a clear and succinct manner, that can be understood quickly by future clients.

Beginner's Painting

Use this section to show off your services and projects. Take the time to talk at length about each one in a clear and succinct manner, that can be understood quickly by future clients.

Basic Papier-Mâché

Use this section to show off your services and projects. Take the time to talk at length about each one in a clear and succinct manner, that can be understood quickly by future clients.

Add a little bit of body text

Children are born artistic. As a teacher, I equip them with the tools to explore their creativity.

